Christmas bells.
Merry Christmas!
Roll in the Yule log.
Hang up the stockings.
Drug stores multiplying.
Cold and frosty mornings.
Santa Claus is hovering near.
Wheat trembling in quotations.
M. E. Church supper next Friday night.

Go to the Daily Block next Tuesday night.
Fun at the Opera House next Monday night.
Better close up business houses on Christmas.
Supper at the Daily Block next Tuesday night.
They are looking for that 11-foot fall of snow.

New Year's cards printed in fine style at this office.
"Ye lads and lassies, go fetch ye holly and mistletoe."
Give the entertainment next Monday night a full house.

Remember the poor in disposing of your Christmas cheer.
Let every seat in the Opera House be filled next Monday night.
A number of our citizens are preparing family Christmas trees.

Capt. J. C. Terry is visiting his brother at Cheyenne, W. T.
"Chopstick and Spikins"—Opera House—next Monday night.
There will be the usual Christmas services at the Catholic church.

Tableaux, music and comedy at the Opera House next Monday night.
There is to be a turkey shooting match at Bridgeport on Christmas.
Attend the entertainment of the Episcopal church next Monday night.

The Public Schools will close for the usual holiday vacation of one week, to-morrow.
Three or four parties from this place attended the Masonic ball at Brookville last night.

Prof. F. C. Harvey has located in the practice of the law at Minneapolis, Minnesota.
Mr. C. S. Radcliff has been confined to his home for several days with quite severe sickness.

Remember the supper to be given by the ladies of the M. E. Church next Friday evening.
The post-office will be closed on Christmas day from 11 o'clock A. M. to 4 o'clock P. M.

Christian Churches Supper at the Daily Block next Tuesday night. A fine table it will be.
The little folks are now counting the hours which will elapse between now and Saturday morning.

County clerk Hammer and Sheriff Trask, of Lincoln county—both good and worthy officials, called yesterday.
The ladies of the M. E. Church give a supper at the Daily Block next Friday evening. Be sure to attend.

The butchers will begin the new year with "positively cash." The arrangements have already been effected.
The school children in Maj. Forsse's school district are to be treated to a Christmas tree entertainment to-morrow night.

Rev. F. M. Iams, formerly pastor of the Baptist church of this city, has received and accepted a call to Mansfield, Ohio.
Capt. Davidson, of Abilene, is in the city, attending to business before the U. S. Land Office.

The ladies of the Christian church will provide splendid entertainment for those who attend their supper next Tuesday night.
The hens still continue indifferent about supplying the people with eggs. Meanwhile, 25 cents per dozen is the ruling price.

Mr. M. J. Wells, who leaves next Monday for Florida, to be gone a couple of months, or so long as his business interests there require.
An important contest will now occupy the attention of the U. S. Land Office. The parties live in Dickinson county. It is believed that it will take two or three weeks to finish it.

Those who design receiving New Year calls will please leave their names at this office on or before Wednesday, that they may be published on Thursday.
D. C. Lockwood has returned from Baltimore. He states that Ed Smith is no better—in fact, failing. This will be sad news for the many friends of the family.

Dr. W. Davis has decided to attend the Ecumenical M. E. Conference to be held in London. Mr. J. W. Robbins, his son-in-law, talks some of accompanying him.
Henry Ottman gave up his experiments at coal boring at the old place and commenced again in another place. After going in six feet he struck a 2-inch vein of coal, on Monday.

Messrs. Ed. Culp and Al. Wickham went down to Kansas City, the first of the week, to see that W. S. Wickham should not be imposed upon by the people of the city among the hills, as he returned to Norwalk, Ohio.

Mr. W. T. Hall, a former well-known partner of Radcliff Bros., and now a resident of Buffalo, Illinois, writes: "I will have to go back to Salina. I weigh 165 pounds. I weighed when in Salina 275 pounds."

Mrs. Richard Kerr, nee Nettie Havens, lies dangerously ill of lung disease at her residence, on Chestnut Hill. Her indisposition creates profound sadness throughout a large circle of friends.—Leavenworth correspondence of the Kansas City Times.

Mrs. Kerr is a sister of Mrs. Col. Spivey, of this city.
Twenty members were recently received into the Lutheran church at New Cambria, of which A. B. Kirtland is pastor: the result of a two weeks meeting, in which the pastor was assisted by Rev. T. F. Donahue, Traveling Missionary of the State.

Mr. J. W. Robbins, of the Chicago Inter-Ocean staff, and his wife—the daughter of Rev. Dr. Davis, of this city, arrived last week for a holiday visit with Mrs. Robbins' parents.

A quantity of rain fell last Thursday night which benefited the wheat considerably. What the wheat needs is either rain or snow. A little of either now and then could do no possible harm.

Mr. B. McAllister, Secretary of U. P. R.—K. P. Division—Land Department, was visiting friends in this city last Friday. He always receives a warm welcome in Salina. He has a host of friends and well-wishers in our place.

The M. E. Christian, Episcopal and Presbyterian churches are preparing entertainments for Christmas eve. We understand that it will be a "snow house" at the last mentioned church, and "Christmas trees" at the other churches.

For some reason the name of Miss Amanda Dooley was omitted from our recently published list of those who had received State Teacher's Certificates. This lady is one of our most successful teachers, and it is but justice to her to make this correction.

A bridge election has been ordered in Liberty township, to occur on the 11th of January. It is the purpose to build the bridge one mile directly east of Asaria. The amount to be voted is $2,000. It is believed that it will be carried.

The Sabbath School scholars in the neighborhood of the Carmony school house, are to have a Christmas tree. The tree stood in front of the Grand Central Hotel for a few days and was much admired. The entertainment originated with Mrs. Carmony, Mrs. Hoard and Mrs. Swartz and promises to be very pleasant for the little ones.

Mr. A. L. Brown now has charge of the Johnson Cycolopia business at Salina. Those in need of the work will be supplied by him, if they will only make their wants known. "Al" is one of the substantial of Salina county, in whom all repose confidence, and we have no doubt but that he will succeed admirably as a canvasser.

The Public Reading Room was formally opened last Thursday night, and is in good running order now. The room has been repainted, furnished with two long tables, chairs and an organ. Lending newspapers and periodicals will always be found upon the tables. It should be the favorite resort of the young men these long winter evenings.

The salt works in the Eastern part of this county are being put in trim for effective work. A large force of hands is employed. Ten carpenters are preparing and joining the lumber for the vats. There are to be 35 vats 16 feet wide, and 300 feet long, besides one large vat 200 feet square. The works when completed will cover an area of about 12 acres.

Upon the same morning that Mr. W. S. Fletcher, Esq., was admitted to the bar, he had the opportunity immediately to distinguish himself somewhat in an important criminal case—the case of the State vs. Bolster. He made an address of about 20 minutes length to the jury, and at the close received the congratulations of the Judge and fellow members of the bar upon his success.

In the District Court the case of M. J. Wells, vs. Thos. and Anna E. McAllister resulted in a verdict in favor of plaintiff for $201. A decree of divorce was granted to S. C. Serville, in the case of Serville vs. Serville. R. P. Cravens, Esq., was made referee in the case of Crowley vs. Freeman. In the tax case of John Clegg & Co., vs. the county, the Judge reserved his decision.

Hon. Tom Anderson, State Senator-elect, having stepped to a higher position in political life, resigned the office of trustee of Smoky Hill township, and appointed Mr. J. F. Wellington to succeed him. Mr. Wellington is one of the best farmers of the township and we have no doubt but that he will make one of the best officers the township ever had.

The Mayor has issued a card calling upon citizens to aid in making Christmas pleasant to the poor, by contributing what they may see fit in the way of private donations. He asks the contributors to leave their parcels at his store, where they will be put in the hands of a committee especially appointed to distribute the articles. We can all afford to help in this good cause.

The friends of Mrs. J. W. Aldrich will be pained to hear that she was recently stricken with epilepsy at her home in Lindsay. For six days and nights she was without sleep, and was lying in imminent danger of death. Dr. Crowley was summoned and applied such remedies that she is now out of immediate danger. We hope to be able soon to chronicle her complete recovery.

Mr. H. Goodspeed, who formerly lived in Salina and carried on a tin shop in a wooden building owned by him and situated on the spot now occupied by John Boyd's building, recently died of heart disease at the town of Reading, Kansas. At the time of his death he was carrying on a hardware business at that place and was doing well. His remains were taken by Dr. Goodspeed to Urbana, Illinois, their former residence.

About the middle of September last Mr. A. Davis, who has a farm some two miles south-west of Salina, found that 120 bushels of grain were missing from his bins, and having become satisfied that he knew who the parties were, he started out on the "trail."

He traced them to several towns in this neighborhood, and finally to Cloud county, where they were arrested, and from whence they were brought to Salina and lodged in jail. They were named respectively John Dodd and Elsie Kendall. On last Saturday afternoon the preliminary examination was held before E. L. Norton, Justice of the Peace. After the examination, and while matters were being arranged for bail, Dodd managed to effect his escape and has not been seen since. Dodd worked for Mr. Davis last year, and while in his employ stole some 400 bushels from the same place. He has been quite successful as a wheat thief. He stole wheat from Mr. Davis, and on the night before Thanksgiving, he stole wheat from Mr. T. J. Kendall. Kendall is a brother-in-law of Dodd's. He is not considered near so great a rascal as Dodd.

Mr. J. W. Robbins, one of the ablest correspondents of the Chicago Inter-Ocean, called last Monday. He has since gone out to Western Kansas for the purpose of gathering up data for an article on the "Inter-Ocean" upon the actual condition of the settlers in that portion of the State, called by Eastern people, "Starvation Kansas." We believe Mr. Robbins will do the subject justice and give us an article that may be relied upon as a fair and impartial statement of affairs.

Louis Theodore, son of Louis T. and Ida Tressin, died last Friday at 7 o'clock P. M., at the age of 17 years, 3 months and 2 days. The funeral occurred Sabbath afternoon and was conducted by Rev. T. B. Dooley, rector of the Episcopal church. The remains were followed to the cemetery by a large number of carriages. Louis was a favorite with his playmates when a school boy, and his loss is deeply felt by the older boys of the public school. His quiet, unobtrusive ways and many good qualities had also made him a favorite with the older people who had made his acquaintance. Of late months he had been employed in Mr. R. H. Dille's harness shop, who speaks in the highest terms of the deceased.

The planets, as is well known, have been very "nervous" for some time and have caused considerable perturbation in the affairs of human as well as of the animal world. All the ills and woes and misfortunes and petty accidents of daily life are attributed to the planetary irregularities. If a fellow is advised to drink considerably less of what is known as Tom and Jerry, the sole reply will be, "I would do it if it was not for that 'cussed perturbation'."

It won't do for me now to change my habits or derange my system by treating my inflamed stomach to ordinary water baths. I would certainly go off quicker than a flash, if I made any attempt to stop drinking." Thus it goes in every day life. If a dish is broken, if the ear-ache prevails, if a fire occurs, if a finger is cut, if a woman stops gossiping about her neighbors, if a man doesn't become very odd over the ordinary, petty town-talk, if a girl marries another fellow, if a politician cannot make a whole county vote and think just as he does, if a female cannot dazzle and daze her neighbors with her charms and accomplishments and cosmetics, if four of the baby's teeth are "coming through" in place of two, if the nervous man discovers that his neighbor is making money, if one church is getting a little ahead of another—in fact, if any ordinary thing happens, which would cause no sensation at any other time, it is all owing to the deranged condition of the planets. We hope that the worlds above us may "right up" before all of earth go crazy.

A very excellent entertainment is to be given at the Opera House next Monday evening for the benefit of the Episcopal church. We are promised a very attractive programme and are permitted to give it in part to our readers. The musical portion of the programme will be participated in by some of our leading musicians. Mr. and Mrs. Tom. Kershaw will appear in delightful character songs. Messrs. T. L. Bond, F. H. Wildman, E. H. Gibbs and A. F. Shute—one of the very best male quartets we have ever heard—will render some of their very fine music. Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Wells, Miss Blodgett and Mr. Wellington—a favorite quartette with Salina audiences and possessed of charming voices—will also appear. We also notice that another quartette, composed of Miss Blodgett, Miss Minnie Palmer, Messrs. T. L. Bond and W. S. Fletcher, is announced in the programme. Two or three very elaborate tableaux will be given in fine style. A laughable and amusing comedy, entitled "Chopstick and Spikins," is another feature. In this "Sal" of St. Joseph, Miss Palmer, Mrs. Kershaw, Mrs. Kries, and Messrs. Bond and Fletcher will take part. With the solo, the duet, the quartette, the comedy, the tableaux, the orchestra music by Prof. Sarnoni's band, and other delightful features of the programme, the audience is sure to be satisfactorily entertained. The tickets are only 25 cents each. The performance will commence at 8 o'clock.

How to split a knotty cottonwood trunk so as to make it fit the Russia from stove, is as important a study of domestic economy in this climate as making the detestable old meal breakfast answer both the demands of economy and health. If one can spare time he will reap financial benefit in watching his neighbor open up the hidden and intricate mysteries of the cottonwood trunk. He comes out of the back door with an elastic step, whistling some common air, and on his countenance is impressed in strong lines high hopes and an overweening confidence. He seizes the ax, the trusty ax, the well-blunted edge, which tells of long disuse as well as prolonged absence from the stone which sharpens. He advances like a conquering army upon his victim, with ax poised far above his head. He strikes with a mighty stroke—but not with the precision of the educated wood chopper, and the ax inflicts a cruel wound upon the innocent, unoffending earth—in dangerous proximity to his innocent, unoffending foe. He straightens back for another Herculean effort, and this time drives the ax in half or two into the unyielding chunk. He would withdraw the ax for another stroke, but the ax will not withdraw, as he confidently expected. He pulls upon the helve, bracing his foot against the chunk, and struggles with all the strength of an athlete. Putting all the appliances he has at his command in operation, after great effort he succeeds in divorcing the ax from the chunk. He makes another mighty stroke, but it has no perceptible effect. He now takes off his coat and renews the struggle with spirit. Still he is not master of the situation. Off comes his vest, and in succession his collar and neck tie, and then his hat. He still perseveres in the conflict. His face is red, his eyes are swollen, the perspiration streams down in rivulets, his hair becomes disarranged, his breath is short and labored—he is an object of pity to his neighbors who look out from the windows, and think he is very foolish to waste so much time on so knotty a chunk. After hope has almost died within him he has succeeded in heaving off a chip or so—but still the chunk is too large for the Russia iron stove, and he believes that even in this case he will have no profit in spending too much time and labor and patience on a cottonwood chunk.

Great bargains in dry goods and groceries, at the Palace Store.

Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Tressin desire to return thanks to Rev. T. B. Dooley and the kind friends who assisted at the funeral exercises of their son last Sunday.

Don't forget the house warming and illumination at the Daily Block by the ladies of the Christian church, Tuesday evening, Dec. 26th, 1890. Supper hours from 5 o'clock until 10 o'clock P. M.

The ladies of the M. E. Church will give a supper Friday evening, Dec. 31st, instead of Thursday evening as published last week, in Dr. Daily's new building, on Iron avenue. Supper 50 cents. The public are cordially invited to attend.

Mr. C. H. Rose, representing interests in the Kerber mining district of Colorado, called last Saturday. He exhibited some magnificent gold and silver specimens, taken from that district, which certainly prove to us that it is one of the most valuable mining sections in Colorado.

Willis Kessler has returned from the Kerber district, Colorado, and will remain about three weeks. He is enthusiastic over his mining stock and succeeds in interesting a number of Salina people in the enterprise. We hope Willis may strike it everlastingly rich.

Messrs. Shaw & McMillen sold on Tuesday to Haggart & Co., butchers, a 19 month old thoroughbred Durham heifer, weighing 1,465 pounds. Shaw & McMillen are breeders of City-dwelling hogs and Durham cattle. Their stock farm being 7 miles south of Salina. Haggart & Co. propose to have some delicious Christmas beef for their patrons.

Mr. A. F. Shute, the well-known butcher, bought a steer last week which weighed 2,000 pounds. It was a very attractive looking one, and its weight, Sir, Steer drew quite a crowd of admirers. He would do to travel with a circus. Shute proposes to celebrate Christmas in good style. His many patrons will be satisfactorily supplied.

Rev. A. J. Hartsock, pastor of the Lutheran church, returned from his prolonged Eastern trip last Tuesday night. A large party of their parishioners assembled at the parsonage and upon the arrival of the worthy parson and wife, a warm welcome and substantial supper was in waiting for them. Before the company dispersed a handsome set of dishes was presented to Mrs. Hartsock.

Mr. J. F. Thwing, editor of the Fond du Lac (Wis.) Reporter, called last Saturday. He is the son of Mr. Ralf Thwing, of Gypsum creek, this county. He is one of the most promising young journalists of Wisconsin. His paper is already accorded a leading position among the journals of that State. Having made a brief visit to his parents, Mr. Thwing returned to Wisconsin last Monday.

Not being able to obtain a quorum last Monday night for their regular monthly meeting, the city council adjourned until the following evening. Upon reassembling all the council members were present. The mayor pronounced one of the pleasantest meetings held during his administration. The new council room looked bright and cheery and added 10-fold to the good feeling of the City Fathers. The room has been papered, painted and carpeted, and furnished with a long handsome table, and a good supply of arm chairs is provided. Considerable business was disposed of that evening. The fire committee was instructed to procure barbed wire for the city and one dozen locks for the use of the fire departments. The application of Jesse Frost for a building permit was denied. The petition for a sidewalk on the east side of Eighth street—from Ash to North street, after being discussed, was ordered to be built; also a sidewalk commencing on Santa Fe, thence east on north side of Elm to Fifth street. A petition to open Eighth street across the railroad track was referred. The report of the City Treasurer was received. The marshal was instructed to remove the little building standing on Lot 110, Santa Fe. Mr. Tilley, the stenographer, was allowed to make two copies of the Treasurer case for $150. The following interesting letter on the water works question was received:

LYNDON, Ills., Dec. 14, 1890.
Dear Sir:—Your post office card of the 11th inst. has been received. I am sorry to say that if the people of Salina desire to secure water works on about the same basis that was talked of by me to some of your business men when I was there, that if they will grant the "franchise" the work will be done the coming summer (1891). I will be glad to pay to you while I have no time now money to spend in interviewing your people again on the subject, unless they want to do so. I was there in September last, it seemed almost impossible for me to get any hearing at all, consequently I could come to but one conclusion, I must pay to you while I have no time now money to spend in interviewing your people again on the subject, unless they want to do so.
